FIXISTS VS. MOBILISTS

IN THE GEOLOGY CONTEST OF THE CENTURY, 1844-1969

Defending Champion
Fixism 1924

Challenger
Mobilism 1924

Fixists

97 Lyell, Charles
13 Dana, James Dwight
52 Coleman, Arthur P.
57 Willis, Bailey
58 Schuchert, Charles
65 Lake, Philip
87 Longwell, Chester R.
89 Bucher, Walter
90 Dunbar, Carl O.
91 Jeffreys, Harold
2 Simpson, George Gaylord

Team Rosters

Mobilists

10 Hopkins, Evan
21 Pepper, John Henry
60 Taylor, Frank Bursley
70 Grabau, Amadeus W.
71 Daly, Reginald A.
73 Van der Gracht, V.W.
78 Du Toit, Alex.
79 Argand, Émile
80 Wegener, Alfred
90 Holmes, Arthur
91 Bailey, E. B.

|--|-------------|
| Preface   | 8           |
| 1. Introduction   | 9           |
| Fixists and Mobilists, Creationists and Evolutionists                | 9           |
| Introductory Geology in an Eggshell                                  | 9           |
| Radioactive Heating and Convective Churning in the Earth's Mantle    | 11          |
| The Geologic Time Periods and Tricks to Quickly Learn Them           | 12          |
| Alfred Wegener and the History of Plate Tectonics                    | 14          |
| Paleomagnetic Stripes and the Sudden Acceptance of Mobilism          | 15          |
| 2. Hypotheses of Neptunian Continental Drift                  | 18          |
| Charles Lyell's Horizontal "Transfer" of Continents (1837)           | 18          |
| Evan Hopkins' Proof of Northward Shifting of the Continents (1844)   | 21          |
| A Mechanism for Global Shift of Crust                                | 24          |
| "We Have No Need to Invent Strange Hypotheses"                       | 28          |
| The Snider-fit of Continents Bordering the Atlantic Ocean (1858)     | 32          |
| John Henry Pepper's Hypothesis of Neptunian Continental Drift (1861) | 36          |
| "First they ignore you. Then they ridicule you."                     | 45          |
| 3. Former Continental Connections                             | 46          |
| "Where th' Atlantic Rolls, Wide Continents have Bloom'd"             | 46          |
| James Dwight Dana's Creation-Origin of Continents and Oceans (1863)  | 50          |
| Hot Climate of the Arctic's Carboniferous Rocks                      | 55          |
| Glacial Ice Sheets over Subtropical Lowlands (1856 / 1903)           | 57          |
| The Problem of Sinkable Land Bridges (1910)                          | 61          |
| Charles Schuchert's Historical Geology (1915)                 | 66          |
| 4. Alfred Wegener's Displacement Theory                       | 74          |
| Ocean Basin Formation Without Sinking Continents (1912)              | 74          |
| Wegener's Origin of the Mid-Atlantic Ridge                           | 79          |
| Osmond Fisher's Sub-Oceanic Convection Currents (1889)               | 85          |
| Wegener's First Geology Book (1915)                                  | 89          |
| Wegener's Second and Third Editions (1920, 1922)                     | 93          |
| Complete Text of Chapter 1 of Wegener's English Edition (1924)       | 95          |
| Complete List of Contents of Wegener's English Edition (1924)        | 101         |
| Published Reactions to Wegener's Book                                | 104         |
| Mechanisms Incapable of Moving Continents (or Scientists)            | 106         |
| Wegener's Use for Land-Bridge Theory                                 | 107         |
