

The results of a nationwide survey on Chemical Engineering faculty salaries will be presented along with other survey results which includes graduate student assistantships, post-doctoral fellow salaries, and starting assistant professor salary offers. Regional and national averages will be compared to similar results from past surveys.